Summer has come! This year, around 100 students will be joining the College’s various outbound activities, ranging from cultural exposure, language learning, professional attachment to service-learning. Leading teachers and participating students were all invited to attend the Kick-off Ceremony marking the commencement of a fruitful summer. Professor Man-Hong Lai, College Dean of Students (書院輔導長黎萬紅教授) gave an inspiring speech to encourage students to explore the world, and other College members joined the ceremony to show their support.

2. Programme Exploration Days for S6 Students 中大課程探索日書院攤位

The College participated in the Programme Exploration Days held on 15th & 16th May organized by the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid (OAFA). Throughout the two days, JUPAS applicants had the chance to understand more about CUHK’s College system and the uniqueness of the nine Colleges. They also had the opportunity to explore further their preferred programmes, attend mock interviews and get personal admission consultation to plan ahead for their undergraduate studies.

3. Sichuan Delegation Visiting the College

A delegation of government officials and representatives from Sichuan Province visited our College on 21st May. They enjoyed the sharing of the College’s Service-Learning programmes, particularly the Service-Learning Trip to Sichuan and toured around the campus to appreciate the beautiful environment and excellent facilities of the College. Mr. Wai-hung Tang (鄧惠雄先生), Director of College Service-learning Programme, received the delegation.
College Green Team (書院綠色小組) and Shatin CGS (綠在沙田) co-organized a freecycling scheme at hostel check-out. Collection boxes were placed at hostel lift lobbies to gather second-hand items. Dedicated Green Team members selected and picked up recyclable items from hostel floors and categorized trash for recycling. Volunteers of Shatin CGS visited the College to promote the concept of recycling and encouraged residents to contribute to the campaign. Eventually, the College has donated useful items such as duvets, pillows and electronic devices to various charity groups while Green Team members will prepare some cooking utensils for public use in hostel pantries next semester.

The Cross-Strait Green University Consortium is a joint effort of CUHK, Nanjing University, Taiwan Central University, Beijing Normal University, Taiwan Cheng Kung University and Zhejiang University with an aim to serving as a platform for driving initiatives that incorporate green concepts into research and education. According to the Consortium Agreement, member institutions will develop cross-institution green programmes or competitions to get students involved in extending their experience to the community and promoting sustainable development.

The Green Competition Camp under this Consortium will be hosted by Beijing Normal University from 24th to 30th August 2018. All students are encouraged to submit innovative proposals to take part in this cross-strait competition. Submissions can be plans or projects describing services, products or technological solutions or a research report on specific environmental issues. The theme this year is “上善若水”, i.e. projects should be related to water and life, use of water (resources), and water and culture (水生活・水利用和水文化). Collaboration across different disciplines of studies is highly encouraged.

The deadline for project submission is 5:00 pm, 15th June, 2018 (Friday).

For further programme details, please contact Mr. Simon Leung of OAL (China) at 3943 4412 or via email to simoncnleung@cuhk.edu.hk.
