Sunny Review

1. 2018/19 Summer Programme Introduction Session

Six summer programmes to be organized by the College were introduced at the Summer Programme Introduction Session on 6th Mar. Attendees learnt the details and highlights of various programmes. Previous participants of different programmes Mr. Sheung-hei Chan 陳尚禧同學 (Economics/3), Mr. Justin C.Y. Leung 梁澤然同學 (MBChB/2), Mr. Wing-ho Ng 吳穎豪同學 (Professional Accountancy/3), Miss Lee-kuen Wong 黃莉娟同學 (Nursing/3), and Mr. Wai-chaak Yim 嚴瑋禂同學 (Electronic Engineering/2) shared their experiences and gains with the attendees.

The College also encourages students to make good use of the funding schemes provided by the College, namely the Global Learning Award Scheme and Service-Learning Project Funding Scheme, to support their own initiatives to engage in self-arranged exploration journeys.
2. Multi-cultural x Sports – Kabaddi

“Kabaddi, Kabaddi, Kabaddi” – Participants kept chanting the word while raiding on the field during the experience session on 5th Mar. Kabaddi is a South Asian traditional sport played by two teams of seven, and is an official event in Asian Games (亞運會). The raider aims to tag out as many defenders as possible and return without being caught, while the defender aims to capture the raider.

Participants first learnt the moves and tactics in the 30-minute demonstration, but they could not wait to begin the intense games! Sometimes the raider got surrounded by defenders and was too late to return to his/her field. Or sometimes the raider scored multiple points by tagging out many defenders. What’s more important is that students learnt about the South Asian sports cultures at the exhausting yet exciting match.

3. Spanish Cooking Class

A group of Sunnies joined the Spanish Cooking Class conducted by Miss Maria Consuelo Vega Leon, College Member and Assistant Lecturer at the Department of Linguistics and Modern Languages last Tuesday. Students did not only learn to prepare Pan Tumaca and Guacamole using healthy avocados and tomatoes, they also got to know more about food culture in Spain and tried different Spanish food during the tasting session. All of them had an enjoyable evening!
A Talk on Liver Health conducted by College Members Professor Grace L.H. Wong (黃麗虹教授), Professor at the Department of Medicine and Therapeutics, Professor Baoting Zhang (張保亭教授), Assistant Director of the School of Chinese Medicine and Professor Joan Z. Zuo (左中教授), Director and Professor at the School of Pharmacy, was held on 7th Mar.

Professor Wong started the talk by introducing common liver diseases and gave dietary and exercises advice to participants for prevention of liver diseases. Professor Zhang then shared with participants the best season of nourishing our liver and suggested us to go to bed earlier and avoid stress. Professor Zuo briefed participants on the relationship between drugs, health supplements and liver. She also advised us to be aware of drug overdose to avoid drug-induced liver injury.

We were very grateful to have College Member Dr. Samuel C.M. Chan (陳忠牧醫生) from University Health Services to moderate the event and to hold an interactive discussion with the participants. Participants also underwent a Fibroscan Examination to know more about their liver health and enjoyed delicious refreshments after the talk.
Joining a group of Master in Sustainable Tourism students yesterday, a number of College students explored Lai Chi Wo, which is an ancient but well-conserved Hakka village in northeastern New Territories. It was an inspiring field trip as Professor Kwai-cheong Chau, Chairperson of Campus Environment Committee and leading teacher of the trip, not only shared his tremendous geology and geography knowledge, but also introduced to participants the history, cultures and customs of the Hakka village visited.
