Sunny Review

1. Sunny Living Week: Relax, Refresh and Recharge!

Following the success from last year, the well-received Sunny Living Week was re-run at the beginning of this semester, offering a wide variety of activities with new elements to train students’ body, mind and spirit, and encourage them to contribute to the environment and society.

The sequel started off with a touch of our mother nature. Around 40 student and staff members followed the lead of Professor Kwai-cheong Chau (鄒桂昌教授), Chairperson of Campus Environment Committee and Adjunct Associate Professor at the Department of Geography and Resource Management, in Eco-hike @ Tai Po Kau Nature Reserve (大埔滘生態遊). It was a fruitful journey in which Professor Chau educated us about various ecosystem services essential to the survival of human beings and the relationship between forests and climate change. More than an ecology class, the eco-hike was a lesson taken in the forest while participants learnt about the co-existence of human and nature.

College Master Professor Anthony T.C. Chan (院長陳德章教授) then shared with participants the health benefits of eating more vegetables and less meat at the Vegetarian Lunch (素宴). Professor Kwai-cheong Chau echoed and further elaborated on the importance of green eating and its impact on defeating the climate change threats. All participants including College staff members, local and non-local College students would certainly tell you that veggie dishes do not mean monotonous and tasteless vegetables only. Give vegetarian meal a try and start a more nutritious diet in your life!

After gaining energy from the Vegetarian Lunch, a group of Sunnies joined the Forest Bath (森林浴) to immerse themselves in the natural forest atmosphere in CUHK under the guidance of Miss Amanda Yik, Forest Bath Guide of US Association of Nature and Forest Therapy Guides & Programs. They used their five senses to see, to smell, to hear, to touch and to taste this familiar environment from a new perspective. At the end of the event, their worries and stress were wiped away by the magical power of the nature.

Another way to show our love to the nature is to replace one-off plastic products with their sustainable counterparts. Students learnt how to create zero-waste Beeswax Food Wraps (蜂蠟保鮮布), while making each one unique by designing their one-of-a kind patterns on the cloths. All participants had an enjoyable time and the beeswax food wraps are definitely wonderful gifts for friends and family!
Sunny Relay Race challenged 8 student teams for an interesting task of rowing 2km and riding a specially-designed bicycle to make 3 cups of smoothies! While each team strived their best for the fastest speed, they did not forget the spirits of “Sports for Everyone” and “Green Eating” manifested through the laughter and cheers during the race. The smoothie-ride bicycles lent by Green Monday and the sharing on balanced diet from professional nutritionists gave students a fun way to begin green living.

Another group of Sunnies began their green living by joining the Shape You Up: Healthy Snack Making Workshop (愈食愈FIT - 有營小食製作工作坊). Miss Tiffany Cheung, Nutritionist of Green Monday, taught participants to make vegan chia seed pudding and introduced different healthy snack choices. Tiffany also explained benefits of vegetarian diet in terms of health (e.g. avoiding obesity and chronic diseases) and environmental protection (e.g. reducing greenhouse gas emission and water usage). She also introduced alternative plant-based protein sources such as peas, bean curd and nuts. At the end of the workshop, Tiffany suggested participants to choose food with different colours, as a rainbow of foods creates a palette of nutrients that are essential for a healthy diet plan.
Promoting a sunny lifestyle takes collective efforts. Different student organizations and units set up their Activity Booths at the College Gallery to share the important message to their fellow students, including UV Resin DIY Keychain Workshop by Creativity Laboratory (創意實驗室), Darts Game by Sports Association (體育學會), DIY Sunblock Workshop by Green Team (綠色小組) and VR Game by Jockey Club Museum of Climate Change (賽馬會氣候變化博物館). Those getting tired from the workshops and games could get free organic sugarcane water and buy organic vegetables at the Organic Farm Booth to re-gain their energy!

This year’s Sunny Living Week concluded with an insightful Visit to T-Park (源·區--- 轉廢為能之館) in which a waste-to-energy journey was introduced. Participants were amazed by the state-of-the-art sludge incineration and self-sustaining operation systems in T-Park, which reduces the volume of sludge by 90 per cent and thus substantially reduce the loading on landfills, as well as generate electricity during the incineration process to meet on-site operational needs. After an informative guided tour, some Sunnies took the chance to enjoy a relaxing T-Spa, supported by the heat energy recovered from the sludge incineration process, with a seamless sea view of Deep Bay.
With the spirit of Sunny Living in mind, we will always be able to relax, refresh and recharge, hence be ready for different challenges in life!

2. Hostel Floor Gatherings 宿舍樓層聚會

Hostel life is of great fun! Every month, Resident Tutors organize floor gatherings to mingle with resident students, celebrate festivals and create occasions for residents to meet their fellow floor-mates. First-year students shared their difficulties in adapting to university and hostel life while senior year students offered tips. Together they build a supportive community in the hostels. If you still haven’t met your floor-mates or resident tutor, don’t miss the chance in October!
3. College Student Bodies’ Promotion at CUHK Art Fair

Dessert Society (甜品學會) and College Rotaract Club (宜孫扶青) took part in CUHK Art Fair (中大藝墟) on 18th and 19th Sep to promote themselves by sharing their activities and recruiting new blood. Many fellow students expressed interests and signed up to be their members. We hope that various student societies will continue to thrive and create pleasant campus life for their peers.

4. Clab Orientation Activities

The student conveners of Creativity Laboratory (創意實驗室), also known as the clabbers, organized a series of orientation programmes in the past few weeks. To begin with, they transformed the Creativity Laboratory (c!ab) into a live concert hall with lighting and sparkling decorations. Joining hands with Music Society, all participants including local and non-local students had a relaxing and enjoyable music night.

Clabbers also made use of dried flowers and leaves to conduct UV Keychain Workshop (滴膠匙扣工作坊) and Natural Plant Dyeing Handkerchief Workshop (植物拓染工作坊).

Those interested in getting to know c!ab better are welcome to join our coming gathering on 26th Sep (Thu) at 7:30pm in c!ab. Share your creative ideas with us and be one of us!
