1. Christmas Gathering
Our staff members gathered on 18th Dec, 2019 for Christmas! Professor Anthony T.C. Chan (陳德章教授), College Master wished every participant a happy holiday and hosted the turkey-carving ceremony. Professor Kam-fai Wong (黃錦輝教授), College Associate Master and Chairperson of College Life and Personal Growth Committee, also greeted all the guests.

Followed by the festive buffet, Prof. Annisa C.H. Lee (李賴俊卿教授) led everyone to sing Christmas carols. Prof. Kam-fai Wong again brought us joy by portraying as Santa Claus to distribute gifts, a fair trade lavender sachet, to the participants. Not only did it echo “Social Responsibility”, one of the College missions, but it might also put us as ease during a tough time.

18 Sunnies went to Andrew Orphanage School in Yangon, Myanmar to serve the kids there from 21st - 28th Dec, 2019. Sunnies were divided into 5 groups to plan activities in various aspects.

The English Group taught the kids simple and useful daily conversation in English through different interesting activities. The Science Group designed some experiments and activities to share with the kids some scientific theory and knowledge. The Games Group brought some new games to play with the kids and stressed the importance of team spirit to the kids. The Art Group shared with the kids some handcrafts for Christmas Celebration and their products were hung on the Christmas tree as decoration. The General Education Group introduced some concepts of healthy diet, proper hygiene and Myanmar’s geography and natural environment to the kids.

Our Sunnies not only learn to serve but also learn from service. They are inspired by the artistic talent and positive attitudes of the kids. In spite of a lack of resources, the kids are optimistic, tough and creative. Smile can be seen in their faces all the time and they enjoy every activity we do with them. It is an unforgettable and fruitful trip both to the Sunnies and the kids.
