Sunny Review

1. Sunny Living Week: New Normal, New Attempts, New Breakthroughs
Following the success from previous years, Sunny Living Week was held again from 5th to 9th Oct this year under the pandemic! Since face-to-face teachings were basically suspended, the activities had been switched to an online formats with innovative elements added to train students’ body, mind and spirit, and encourage them to contribute to the environment and society.

The week started off with Music Sharing by College Master Professor Anthony Chan (院長陳德章教授) presenting “Deux Arabesques” composed by Claude Debussy on College facebook LIVE. Facilitated by Dean of Students Professor Ming-kay Poon (輔導長潘鉻基教授), College Master shared with us the importance of music on his life, and the atmosphere and development of music among the College. Master also suggested some types of music which may help relieve stress and strengthen our spiritual health. He also encouraged us to keep exercising to stay physically fit. Everyone was fascinated by this new experience of LIVE music sharing and got inspired on how to maintain a Sunny Living style.
Professor Kwai-cheong Chau (鄭桂昌教授), Chairman of College Campus Environment Committee and Mr. Chi-yip Kung (龔志業先生), our alumnus, guided us towards a Virtual Eco-cultural Tour at Northeast New Territories to explore along Kai Kuk Shue Ha (雞谷樹下), Fung Hang (鳳坑) and Kuk Po (谷埔) where Hakka people resided.

Just 20 minutes, the video tour allows us to give ourselves a break from the hassles, and at the same time, reflect on the relationship between natural environment, Hakka cultural inheritance and rural land planning.

Staying at home for such a long time to attend zoom sessions, some students opted to join Yoga At Home via zoom to stretch the body, recharge themselves and relieve their stress. Students’ videos were turned on to allow LIVE interactions with yoga instructor so everyone could receive appropriate fitness advice timely.
Four enthusiastic bands, Re:member, Flat 9, Barry Lam’s Jazz and Trio and Aa & Elaine’s Duo, from Music Buffet shared with us modern progressive rock, jazz and their originals at College YouTube Channel. A total of 6 pieces have been released named “Sweet Memories”, “Days of Wine and Roses”, “Precious Child”, “Re:me”, “The Girl from Ipanema” and “Someday My Prince will come”. Everyone did chill out with the music broadcasted throughout Sunny Living Week!

Under the pandemic, we cannot but use disposable masks every day. We need to save the earth by reducing the use of other disposable items in our daily life. Learning how to make reusable Beeswax Food Wraps is definitely one of the ways to show our support to environmental protection. Although the workshop was conducted online, students could make the beeswax food wraps together with instructor at home since they had received the material packs beforehand. At the end of the workshop, some students shared their finished products at the screen. Both students and instructor were satisfied and pleased with this new experience.

Ms. Amanda Yik (易琪女士) and Mr. Yiu-sun Chan (陳堯燊先生), Forest Therapy Guides of US Association of Nature and Forest Therapy Guides & Programs, brought us a brand-new Virtual Forest Bathing experience via zoom, with their mobile phones in natural outdoor environment. Students used their five senses to see, to smell, to listen, to touch and to taste the nature through instructors’ screen. Students also shared their feelings with instructors and could notice something that they normally neglect during daily busy life. After joining the virtual forest bath, students felt much more peaceful and calm.
Some Sunnies joined the Boost your Immunity : Light Food Making Workshop to learn cooking healthily. Mr. Leslie K.P. Chan (陳國賓先生), Registered Dietitian, firstly gave a presentation about “Diet and Immunity” and reminded us to eat a variety of foods in order to intake enough Vitamin A, C, E, iron, zinc and protein to maintain normal functioning of our immune system. He then demonstrated making two healthy and yummy dishes, “Homemade Fish Meat Siu Mai with Millet” and “Okonomiyaki with carrot and squid tentacles”. Although students could not cook with instructor face-to-face, they had an interactive LIVE chat with Leslie via zoom and learnt more about nutrition facts and myths.

With the spirit of Sunny Living in mind, we dare to try, dare to take challenges and dare to dream, and it is always important to stay positive, resilient and healthy under challenging times!

2. 2020 CUHK Virtual Info Day

The CUHK Virtual Information Day was successfully held on 10th Oct 2020 (Sat). The College also had a booth to provide information to all the visitors. Our College Master Professor Anthony T.C. Chan (院長陳德章教授) and Dean of Students Professor Ming-kay Poon (輔導長潘銘基教授) welcomed all the visitors via the online platform. Professor Grace L.H. Wong (黃麗虹教授), Chairperson of Scholarships and Financial Aid Committee, also provided information on College scholarships to our visitors. We had a chat room hosted by student ambassadors to answer the questions raised by the visitors as well. Although we could not meet the guest and visitors face-to-face, we could still have a chance to let them get to know us more.

4. Social Impactful Project
Are you looking for opportunities to drive social change through entrepreneurial actions? If yes, Enactus CUHK Social Impactful Project will serve as a solid starting point for your ideas to grow and be realized.

Enactus CUHK is a chapter of a nonprofit organization, Enactus, aiming to promote social entrepreneurship as an important vehicle to drive social change for the better; more importantly, to ignite students’ life-long passion for social entrepreneurship. This year, our first flagship event, Social Impactful Project (SIP), is about to start!

Social Impactful Project is a six-month incubation program for sustainable social business projects, which participants will join internal consultation workshops with advisors from the business and engineering faculties at CUHK, a Fall Exploration experiential workshop to give you the first taste of social innovation, and networking opportunities with founders of social enterprises to help you overcome barriers that may be involved in your startup journey ahead.

We welcome students from all disciplines to join us with your passion for social change whether as an individual or group participants.

5. APRU Virtual Student Exchange Program Co-curricular Activities

The following co-curricular activities under the APRU Virtual Student Exchange (VSE) Program are now open for registration.

The APRU Virtual Student Exchange (VSE) Program makes international education accessible by allowing students to take academic courses and participate in co-curricular programs without the need to leave home. It opens up international education opportunities for all students of APRU member universities, including CUHK, by providing an immersive virtual student exchange experience through digital technologies and platforms and creating encounters with new ideas, cultures, experts and students from around the world.

Don’t miss out on the opportunity to learn, experience and exchange with peers from around the world by joining activities under the Virtual Student Exchange Co-curricular Program. Many activities are offered by member universities of the Association of Pacific Rim Universities (APRU) to bring together students from around the network in 18 economies of the Pacific Rim. They include activities that allow you to learn about other cultures and places, prepare for global leadership and careers, and form social networks with students. CUHK students are welcome to join. Participation is free of charge.

Upcoming Events (in local date & time):
· 19th Oct – 6:00 pm – Evening Music Jam@HKUST offered by The Hong Kong University of Science and Technology
For details and information on more programs, please visit the APRU VSE Co-curricular webpage. Thank you very much for your attention!
