The CUHK Info Day 2021 was held on 16th Oct 2021 (Saturday) and the event was divided into two parts. Participants could register online for guided tours organised by OAFA and various virtual sessions conducted by faculties and colleges.

Our student ambassadors, Thomas W.H. Ng (伍穎謙同學), Sammy P.Y. Chim (詹培炫同學), Verena Y.L. Lee (李綺琳同學) and Miko T.W. Wong (汪梓煒同學) answered participants’ enquiries via the Live Chat function in our College Virtual Booth and conducted two sessions of student sharing in the afternoon.
2. College Forum: Sustainable Development: Do you think about Development?
(Speaker: Professor Christine K.W. Loh 陸恭蕙教授)

The second College Forum entitled “Sustainable Development: Do you think about Development?” was conducted by Professor Christine K.W. Loh (陸恭蕙教授), Chief Development Strategist, HKUST; Former Under Secretary for the Environment, last Friday. Professor Loh introduced the United Nation's Sustainable Development Goals and how global problems like poverty, clean energy, clean water and more, are addressed by the goals. She encouraged students to think what they could do in achieving these common goals of the global community.

We were grateful to Professor Albert Lee (李大拔教授), Associate Dean of General Education, Wu Yee Sun College and Director of Centre for Health Education and Health Promotion, for moderating the Forum.

4. Creativity Laboratory – Indigo Dyeing Workshop (藍染工作坊)

The student conveners of Creativity Laboratory (clabbers), Viola Y. T. Chan 陳昕彤 (ELED/2) and Natalie Y.H. Woo 胡若希 (MED/2), initiated an indigo dyeing workshop by partnering with Twilight Art Studio on 15th Oct 2021 (Friday). Dozens of Sunnies were interested in creating their own works and getting to know more about the story of indigo tie dye.
Sunnies were separated into two different sessions and created two items out of three, which were T-shirt, tote bag and cushion cover. All our Sunnies successfully made their own pieces with unique patterns and had a great fun night. Hope everyone will keep unleashing their creativity for the good of our society.

Please stay tuned and follow the Instagram (@clab2021_cuhk) for further activities and updates!

3. Whispers of Plants 花草絮語
“Let’s get out into nature!” – to many of us, this statement may not be as easy as it sounds. What if we bring nature home? Take your time with the plants in an alternate form - decorating your home with dried flowers and making yarns with plant fibres can help you find a sense of joy.

Successful applicants of Self-motivation Fund for Green Activities will share their experiences and insights of their participation in green activities with support of the fund. Demo session of dried floral arrangement and making yarns with plant fibres will be held. Each participant can also give a try and bring your natural art home.
